

29th Annual BIA Tribal Providers Conference
December 3-5 | Anchorage, Alaska

Partners Sessions

Location: Varied

Tuesday, December 03, 2019

1:15 pm – 2:45 pm	Alaska Native Tribal Liaisons group - 3rd Floor, Tikahtnu D The Alaska Native Tribal Liaisons group will provide information about recent initiatives covering 12+ Federal and State Agencies in Alaska affecting tribes and rural communities. Panel moderated by: Amanda Andraschko, Native Affairs Liaison, NORAD U.S. Attorney Office - 2nd Floor, Tubughnenq 4 The United States Attorney’s Office is partnering with us to present on the federal nexus of crime in Rural Alaska, specific DOJ programming and grants, the RAAVEN initiative and how we might engage and partner with tribal entities to develop strategic community solutions in rural Alaska. Presented by: Yulonda Candelorio, Law Enforcement, Reentry and Community Outreach Coordinator, Dept of Justice Federal Communications Commission – 2nd Floor, Tubughnenq 5 The FCC is hosting a session that focuses on a limited priority filing window for eligible tribes to gain access to unassigned 2.5 GHz spectrum that affects rural communities. Presented by: Cecilia Sulhoff and Matthew Duchesne, Chief, Office of Native Affairs and Policy
2:45 pm - 3:00 pm	Afternoon Break
3:00 pm – 5:00 pm	Tribal Justice Support - 2nd Floor, Tubughnenq 4 The Tribal Justice Support branch of the Office of Justice Services will present on wellness courts and criminal matters in rural communities. Presented by Tricia Tingle Seattle Support – 2nd Floor, Tubughnenq 5 Seattle Support Center will explain the procedure for ordering bulk fuel from Defense Logistics Agency for BIA. Presented by Barbara Shaw, Accounting Specialist, BIA Village Public Safety Officer, Program – 3rd Floor, Tikahtnu C The Village Public Safety Officer program will provide updated information about the program and steps being taken to fulfill their mission. Recruiting representatives will be available on-site. Census 2020, 3rd Floor, Tikahtnu D

29th Annual BIA Tribal Providers Conference December 3-5 | Anchorage, Alaska

Representatives of the 2020 Census will inform our Tribes and communities about the importance and execution of the 2020 Census.

Presented by: Donna Bach, Tribal Partnership Specialist, US Census Bureau

Wednesday, December 04, 2019

- | | |
|--------------------|--|
| 8:00 am – 9:45 am | Alaska Native Science and Engineering Program (ANSEP) -3rd Floor, Tikahtnu D
General overview of the components of ANSEP, an academic learning community that works with students 6 th grade – PhD.
Presented by: Audrey Alstrom P.E., ANSEP Regional Director |
| 9:45 am - 10:00 am | Morning Break |
| 10:00 am - 11:45am | Resource Development – 3rd Floor, Tikahtnu D
Modern resource development on Alaska Native Corporation Lands: Transparency and Ensuring Safe Development.
Presented by: Bob Loeffler and Nelson Angapak |
| 12:00 pm – 1:00 pm | Lunch Break |
| 1:00 pm – 2:45 pm | Geographic Information Systems (GIS) – 1st Floor, Idlughet Theater 1
General overview of current technologies in GIS and ArcPro.
Presented by Lain Graham, Solutions Engineer and Anne Taylor, Federal Account Manager of ESRI. |
| | Office of Self-Governance – 2nd floor, Tubughnenq 4
Authorizing, regulations, eligibility, application process and negotiating documents.
Presented by: OSG Representatives |
| | Administration for Native Americans Funding Opportunities - 3rd Floor, Tikahtnu D
Information regarding the funding priorities for the Administration for Native Americans, resources available through the Alaska Region Training and Technical Assistance Center, and an overview of how to connect with the TTA Center to stay informed.
Presented by: Charles Peele, Alaska Region TTA Center |
| 2:45 pm – 3:00 pm | Afternoon Break |
| 3:00 pm – 5:00 pm | Geographic Information Systems (GIS) – 1st Floor, Idlughet Theater 1
General overview of current technologies in GIS and ArcPro.
Presented by Lain Graham, Solutions Engineer and Anne Taylor, Federal Account Manager of ESRI. |
| | Office of the Special Trustee - 2nd Floor, Tubughnenq 4 |

29th Annual BIA Tribal Providers Conference December 3-5 | Anchorage, Alaska

Self- Governance Compact Tribes and Annual Trust Evaluations: A review and presentation by the Office of the Special Trustee, Office of Trust Review and Audit on the annual tribal trust evaluation process and the evaluation requirements for P.L. 93-638 Compact Tribes compacting trust programs.

Presented by: Francine Chavez-Piaso, Supervisory Auditor, Office of Trust Review & Audit, OST

American Indian Alaska Native Tourism Association – 3rd Floor, Tikahtnu D,

AIANTA will present about the NATIVE Act and Your Voice. The Native American Tourism & Improving Visitor Experience (NATIVE) Act serves to enhance and integrate Native American tourism, empower Native American communities, increase coordination and collaboration between Federal tourism assets, and expand heritage and cultural tourism opportunities in the United States. During this session, Sherry L. Rupert, Executive Director of the American Indian Alaska Native Tourism Association (AIANTA) will discuss AIANTA's work to support implementation of the NATIVE Act and provide information on events being held across the country to assess the needs of Indian Country over the next two years.

Presented by Sherry L. Rupert – Executive Director, AIANTA

Thursday, December 05, 2019

8:00 am – 9:45 am	Village Public Safety Officer, Program – 2nd Floor, Tubughnenq 5 The Village Public Safety Officer program will provide updated information about the program and steps being taken to fulfill their mission. Recruiting representatives will be available on-site.
9:45 am – 10:00 am	Morning Break
10:00 am - 11:45 am	Geographic Information Systems (GIS) – 1st Floor, Idlughet Theater 1 Hands-on workshop – How to use aerial drones to measure and map erosion. Presented by Lain Graham, Solutions Engineer and Anne Taylor, Federal Account Manager of ESRI
	Alaska Region Tribal Budget Committee – 2nd Floor, Tubughnenq 5 The Alaska Region Tribal Budget Committee will be meeting and will be available to discuss the work of the Committee and the recent national Tribal Interior Budget Council meeting in D.C. and 2021 Budget Formulation. Presented by: Daniel Sine, Regional Budget Officer and James Atti, Budget Analyst, BIA
12:00 pm - 1:00 pm	Lunch Break
1:00 pm - 2:45 pm	Geographic Information Systems (GIS) – 1st Floor, Idlughet Theater 1

29th Annual BIA Tribal Providers Conference
December 3-5 | Anchorage, Alaska

Hands-on workshop – How to map and manage Transportation/Road Maintenance.

Presented by Lain Graham, Solutions Engineer and Anne Taylor, Federal Account Manager of ESRI

Alaska Energy Authority – 2nd Floor, Tubughnenq 4

The Alaska Energy Authority is presenting on their mission to “reduce the cost of energy in Alaska” and their work on statewide energy policy and program development.

Presented by: TBD

Administration for Native Americans Funding Opportunities - 3rd Floor, Tikahtnu D

Information regarding the funding priorities for the Administration for Native Americans, resources available through the Alaska Region Training and Technical Assistance Center, and an overview of how to connect with the TTA Center to stay informed.

Presented by: Charles Peele, Alaska Region TTA Center.

2:45 pm - 3:00 pm

Afternoon Break

3:00 pm - 5:00 pm

American Indian Alaska Native Tourism Association – 2nd Floor, Tubughnenq 5

AIANTA will present about the NATIVE Act and Your Voice. The Native American Tourism & Improving Visitor Experience (NATIVE) Act serves to enhance and integrate Native American tourism, empower Native American communities, increase coordination and collaboration between Federal tourism assets, and expand heritage and cultural tourism opportunities in the United States. During this session, Sherry L. Rupert, Executive Director of the American Indian Alaska Native Tourism Association (AIANTA) will discuss AIANTA’s work to support implementation of the NATIVE Act and provide information on events being held across the country to assess the needs of Indian Country over the next two years.

Presented by Sherry L. Rupert – Executive Director, AIANTA